®
BRITISH VOGUE
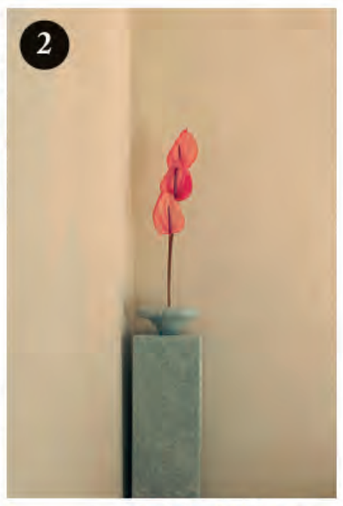
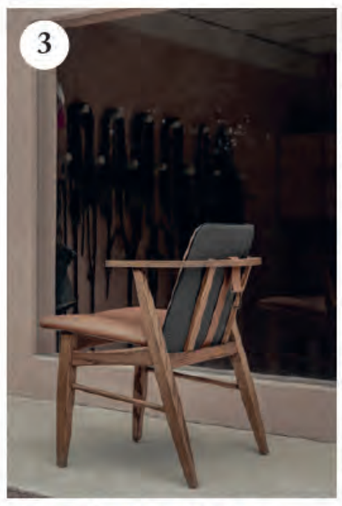
AUG
2025

Dreaming of Doechii

Vogue's Summer House

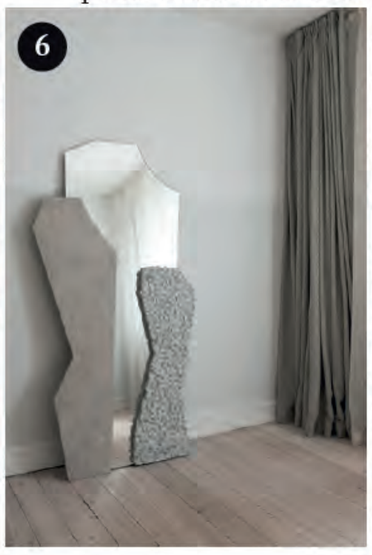




1. Crafted from recycled aluminium and rooted in Danish design, SAPPHIRE is creating a world of refined travel essentials - from elegant luggage to new essentials shaping the future of travel. Visit sapphiresuitcases.com and follow @sapphiresuitcases on Instagram.

2. AESTHEVORE distills the art of modern living into sculptural objects of lasting beauty. Their latest statement in quiet luxury: Brazilian blue crystal marble. Each piece—imbued with tranquil hues and fluid, one-of-a-kind patterns—honours the stone's natural luminosity. Among them, the Fontana bowl vase: a water-inspired form, thoughtfully designed for Ikebana, fruit, or cherished objects. A weighted piece of permanence—where form meets timeless function. Visit aesthevore.com and follow @aesthevore on Instagram.

3. PIZTOLA was born from the fast-paced world of bespoke design, shaped by meticulous curatorship and a passion for quality. Rooted in creating enduring, well-balanced furniture, they now stand at a pivotal moment—refining their craft to elevate the brand. Their signature piece, Sylvestre—inspired by equestrian elegance—continues to evolve with discreet sophistication. Visit piztola.com and follow @_piztola on Instagram.



4. Element Diabase Coffee Table and a Stool by IDAAF ARCHITECTS. Carved from Georgian volcanic Diabase stone, bringing together the timeless geometry of Georgian vernacular architecture. Assembled without screws, the items merge a thoughtful balance of tradition, innovation and place. Visit idaafarchitects.com and follow @idaafarchitects on Instagram.

5. MARIAIDA HOME offers refined home essentials designed and produced in Portugal — from timeless table linens to elegant bedding, furniture, and everyday living accents. Thoughtfully curated for modern living, each piece brings comfort, beauty, and effortless style to every corner of your home. Visit www.mariaida-home.com and follow @mariaidahome on Instagram.

6. Every sculptural mirror by ATELIER MADIRAZZA is unique. With a focus on the environment, broken marble is carefully selected, after which they are reshaped and combined with a handmade relief in concrete. Explore more designs and artworks at www.ateliermadirazza.com and follow @Ateliermadirazza on Instagram.

7. Bask in effortless summer style with the Gitano, O's signature piece crafted from ultra-soft organic cotton and dyed with natural pigments. Light, breathable, and endlessly versatile, it's designed for those who chase sunshine and simplicity while treading lightly on the planet. Conscious luxury made for slow living and everyday ease. Visit www.o-valle.com and follow @o.valle.boutique on Instagram.

8. KATIE LINDQUIST INTERIORS blends the wit and whimsy of English country homes with the playful sophistication of her Manhattan training. Her keen eye for art and antique curation inspires delightfully eclectic interiors, where effervescent colour and pattern, a chic mix of modern and traditional, and a dash of nostalgia find joyful residence. Photography by Julia D'Agostino. Visit www.katie-lindquist.com and follow @katielindquistinteriors on Instagram.

9. A subtle balance between natural wood and refined technique. JOSE CHÁFER explores form and gravity through steam-bent timber, creating timeless pieces that seem to float in space. He captures the eternal movement of form, the invisible connection that binds all living things. Visit www.josechafer.es/en and follow @chafer.j on Instagram.

10. AUURA is a design brand that blends minimalism with mindful luxury. Specialising in next-generation vases, lamps, and décor, each piece is created from organic and recycled materials using innovative technologies, combining elegance and sustainability—perfectly suited for modern living. Explore more at www.aura3d.eu and follow @aura3d_official on Instagram.

11. A home decor wall art brand - turning plain walls into something that lifts you the moment you walk in. With the world feeling heavy, ALICE & SILHOUETTES was made to do the opposite. Every piece is printed to order in a London studio using 100% recycled materials sourced in the UK on heavyweight luxe paper, combining sustainability with a sense of everyday luxury. Discover more at aliceandsilhouettes.com and follow @aliceandsilhouettes on Instagram.

12. LEBAUM is a design studio based in A Coruña, Spain. Focused on creating timeless objects, Lebaum blends craftsmanship, essential forms, and sculptural presence to shape pieces that elevate everyday spaces through a quiet sense of luxury and material expression. Visit lebaum.es and @lebaumdesign on Instagram.

13. SIMONA MASTROLIA is a Brooklyn-based designer crafting bespoke furniture and interiors that combine romance, nostalgia, and traditional craftsmanship. Her work reimagines vintage forms with modern sensibility—each piece telling an intimate story. Explore her whimsical world at simonamastrolia.com and follow @simona_mastrolia on Instagram.

14. Amid a sea of sameness, CRETE STUDIO in Australia has reimagined concrete lighting, bringing colour, rawness and feeling to a traditionally grey space. Each hand poured piece is one-of-a-kind and crafted in Australia with premium materials. Every fixture showcases distinctive marbling and organic textures—subtle variations that celebrate individuality. Visit cretestudioau.com and follow @cretestudioau on Instagram.

15. ATELIER TOURAIN Brass Triptych '25 Coffee Table, made by Tanguy Tourain. The 2025 edition features prominent cast brass elements, highlighted by high gloss polished brass lower parts. The patinated brass base has fluent and playful shapes. Each side has a unique appearance and finish, rendering the table an interactive piece. Visit ateliertourain.com and follow @atelier_tourain on Instagram.

16. FORM & EISEN is an Austrian design studio dedicated to creating objects of substance — designed with care, crafted by hand, and rooted in material clarity. Each piece is made in the studio's own workshop, with a focus on process, precision, and permanence. Clear forms, thoughtful details, and mindful craftsmanship shape objects that are timeless and quietly powerful. Visit form-eisen.at and follow @form.eisen on Instagram.

17. HARRIET BUTLER transforms spaces with her dynamic large-scale abstracts, blending childlike spontaneity with sophisticated storytelling. A Liverpool John Moores Fine Art graduate with five years of professional exhibition experience, Butler's latest cowboy-themed collection injects a party vibe into the home. Featured: 'Just One More'. Visit www.harrietbutlerdesigns.com and follow @harrietbtlrdesigns on Instagram.

18. The Burled Wood Collection, designed by Nicolli Roberts for LIME & CO. The New Zealand design studio explores form through material exploration, with a focus on artisanal craftsmanship and sustainability. The Shield Mirror, handcrafted from Mappa burl, merges classic elegance with vintage sophistication with a design highlighting the unique grain of the wood. Visit www.limeandco.nz and follow @limeandconz on Instagram.

19. INTERIORBYGINI is a multi-award-winning interior design studio celebrated for creating elegant, character-filled spaces. Known for its warm, personal approach, the studio weaves local charm with global sophistication—crafting timeless, soulful interiors that reflect individuality, thoughtful detail, and a refined sense of home. Visit www.interiorbygini.com and follow @interiorbygini on Instagram. Contact hello@interiorbygini.com

20. FELICITY ROWBOTHAM is a 27-year-old award-winning Oil Painter and Ceramicist whose work brings refined vibrancy to exceptional interiors. Celebrated for her bold use of terracottas, oranges, and pinks, each bespoke piece is designed to elevate luxury homes, hotels, and curated spaces. Discover more at felicitycressidarowbotham.com and follow @felicitycressidarowbotham on Instagram.

21. G Lamp by CAL SUMMERS in patinated steel. A British designer and maker now based in NYC, Summers crafts objects and furniture that explore the dialogue between weight and lightness, rawness and refinement, with a deep appreciation for materials. Discover more at calsummers.net and follow @calsummers on Instagram.

22. POMPEII HOME is a New Zealand-based design studio that blends sculptural form with sensory experience. Alongside their bespoke marble furniture and objects, they offer a refined home scent collection—crafted to elevate the rituals of daily life. Visit www.pompeiihome.co and follow @pompeii_home_ on Instagram.

23. SUDDEN OBJECT STUDIO is a design collective based in Rotterdam, The Netherlands. They handcraft unique and unusual resin objects through a technique of repair-through-collage. Explore the full collection of glasses, plates, cutlery and utensils at www.suddenobject.com and follow @suddenobjectstudio on Instagram.

24. NYC brand LYNEN reinvents the once boring tea towel. Playful yet refined, and each one impeccably embroidered, Lynen tea towels are the perfect accessory to dress up your oven door or bar cart. These are "Not Your Granny's Tea Towels". Explore the collection at shoplynen.com and follow @shoplynen on Instagram.

25. THE OPULENT is a British luxury homeware brand inspired by Arabic culture. Known for its calligraphy-engraved vessels, each piece fuses heritage with contemporary design. Made from sculptural concrete, their creations offer refined function, rich symbolism, and timeless beauty for the modern home. Visit theopulent.co.uk and follow @theopulentuk on Instagram.

26. NÚRIA RIERA is an award-wining visual artist. Her paintings originate calmly, inspired by the everyday. The artist wants to share a time to pause and appreciate the beauty in the simple things, in contrast to the fast-paced world of quick consumption. Visit nuriariera.com and follow @nuriariera_art on Instagram.

27. BUHN creates sustainable, refillable candles and reed diffusers designed to elevate your space with lasting scent and style. Thoughtfully crafted for conscious living. Get 20% off your first order with code SPRING (valid until 19/08/2025). Visit buhn.co.uk and follow @buhnbabybuhn on TikTok and Instagram.

28. At I&CO, creative director Isabel Lankester designs bold, playful, and timeless furniture in-house. Their handcrafted pieces combine classic silhouettes with modern details, blending English tradition and contemporary style. Each design is fluid, tactile, and meticulously finished. Photo by Freya Llewellyn-Smith. Discover more at www.isabeland.co and @isabeland.co on Instagram.

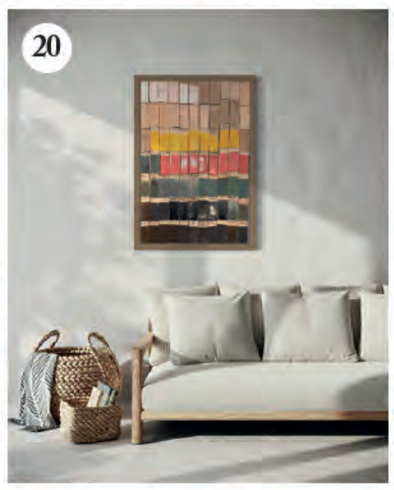
29. LAMPSHADES BY SISSI evokes timeless elegance through handcrafted Victorian-style lampshades. Each piece is delicately created in her woodland studio in Pennsylvania, USA, blending vintage charm with poetic craftsmanship. Bespoke creations are available upon request. Discover more at lampshadesbysissi.com and follow @lampshadesbysissi on Instagram.

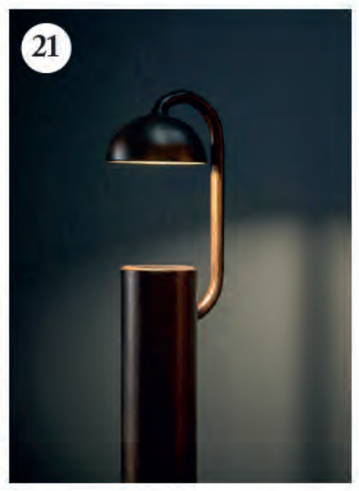
30. Echoing the structures of coral reefs and cellular forms, E&M GLASS' sculptural vessel is layered with hand-pulled murrine and cane. Recently exhibited at Collect 2025 with the Crafts Council, it's shaped in the furnace and finished by hand in their North Wales contemporary glass studio. Visit www.emglass.co.uk and follow @emglass on Instagram and @handmadeglass on Facebook.

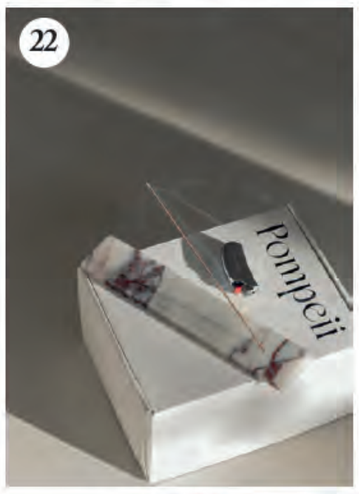
31. LUCAS GUTIERREZ fuses digital culture through the lens of traditional craftsmanship and vanguard digital design. His works and material practice move between the tactile richness of textiles and the evolving possibilities of digital sculpture, with a focus on craft-based materials. This captivating tapestry collection forms a dialogue between past and present, offering a contemporary take on ancient techniques. Celebrating the fusion of vibrant aesthetics, luminosity, and form. Visit www.lucasgutierrez.com and follow @_lucas_gutierrez_ on Instagram.

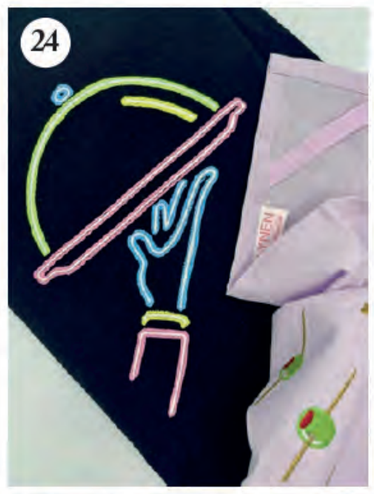
32. FALLINGSTAR is a NYC-based wallpaper and textile studio blending art and design to create luxurious, fine art–inspired pieces. Through cross-disciplinary collaborations with artists, they craft bold, beautiful collections that transform spaces. Discover more at fallingstar-studio.com and follow @fallingstar_studio on Instagram.

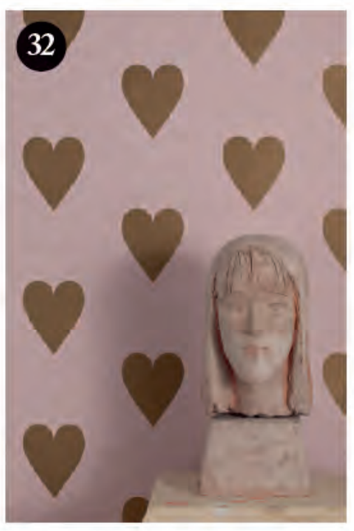
33. GOOD WEATHER is a homeware and design store focused on vintage furnishings rooted in the peculiar. Shop owner, Melanie Clouser, curates through connection and believes that each piece has a story worth telling. Featured: Cotton and Muslin Hands Sculpture on a Crafted Adirondack Dresser. Visit forgoodweather.com and follow @for.goodweather on Instagram.

34. MICHELLE MORTON is an Australian artist known for her handmade ceramics that honour coastal textures and ritual. From oyster platters to one-of-a-kind vessels, her pieces encourage a slower, more intentional way of living. Visit michellemorton.studio and follow @michellemorton.studio on Instagram.










35. ART BY SHARNI. Australian artist Sharni Montgomery's seascapes are informed by a love of the ocean, sparked by a childhood spent playing along the beaches and waterways of Byron Bay. Her work is a celebration of local coastlines, showcasing their unique charm and the deep emotional connections they evoke. From pockets of glistening refracted water to layers of dune grown trees each section tells a story of tranquility and serenity, inviting viewers to immerse themselves in the soothing ambiance of her creations and revisit their own memories of the coast. Visit www.artbysharni.com.au and follow @artbysharni_ on Instagram.